

Capturing the Dramatic and Moody Landscape of Skye

A weekend of painting & drawing with Skye artist Karen Davies at Eunoia Studio.

2 COURSE DATES AVAILABLE – 3rd-6th November 2023 OR 23rd-26th February 2024

Autumn and Winter on Skye offer some of the most dramatic and atmospheric scenes. An inspiring time to create landscape works. This weekend of drawing and painting is suitable for all levels of experience, whether just wanting studio time with other creative people or as a beginner wanting to get started drawing and painting the landscape. The course explores drawing, responding to the landscape through sketchbook work and painting in the studio to further develop work in a variety of media. All materials are included (unless you wish to work with your own in which case a discount can be arranged.)

This break includes 3 nights bed, continental breakfast and 2-course evening meals as well as packed lunches on Saturday and Sunday. You will be staying at Atholl House, Skye in Dunvegan – a former church manse with a cosy guest lounge, en-suite rooms and the warmest of Highland welcomes.

Cost for the weekend includes all materials – max 6 places.

You are welcome to also bring a non-participating partner or friend who will also receive full board.

Single occupancy of a double room - £580 per person
